Dear Mr. Davis,

Thank you for the assurances in your letter of the 12th.

I wrote McGraw-Hill only after you did not respond when I wrote you.

Because you have the letters I wrote them I presume you know that I requested copies of my brief Wasserman correspondence.

I'd appreciate them.

Amy either misfiled them or by mistake included them in what she sent you even though I'd earlier sent copies to you.

Thanks.

Sincerely,
